

Measuring Impact

Impact Measurement, Assessment and Destination Data.

We continually measure and assess the impact of our programme in various ways such as students, parent and progress tutor surveys, as well as inviting feedback from employers who have been involved in activities. We also use destination data obtained from Post-16 Colleges to monitor trend about where our students move on to.

